REPORTS

SHERIFF- Sgt. Gieske reported that the department is still on 12-hour shifts. She also reported that during July there were 134 calls for service. Nothing was remarkable except the passing of counterfeit bills at the Dollar General. She noted that Deputy Paul Atkins would be the day shift for the foreseeable future and that a new Sergeant, Joel Gebaurer, would be in Manchester beginning sometime this fall. The July written report will be forwarded. There were 355 minutes out of area and 70 minutes into area. The majority of the out of area minutes were to Scio Township. The number of traffic stops are starting to come up to pre-Covid levels.

PARKS- DuRussel reported that Amcor volunteers would be painting the pavilions at Carr Park beginning tomorrow. The 60 to 80 volunteers have dwindled to 8. He invited anyone to come and help.

HEALTHY COMMUNITIES/WELLNESS COALITION-Dresch reviewed the results of the recent survey. Manchester had 519 respondents and some good data was collected. Obesity is still an issue. Mental health, though, is positive as 80% of respondents reported it as good to excellent. Manchester also had a reduction in reported binge drinking and is ranked last in the access to fresh produce category.

DPW- Wallace reviewed the report. He noted that requests for bid for lead water service line replacement have been mailed.

MANAGER- Wallace reviewed his report. He highlighted the progress on Dutch Drive and reported that it went 1% over budget. The recent Michigan Treasury Department webinar reported reductions to the state shared revenues. The Village budget for FYE 21 has factored reductions in. Wallace reported that a couple of the downtown blight issues have been cleaned up.

Vaillencourt reported that she had attended the Manchester Township Board meeting. Voter turnout for the recent primary was 665 for precinct 1 and 821 for precinct 2. Broadband and/or wireless internet connectivity continues to be a topic. They will likely have an open house in September when the repairs to the Township Hall are complete.

There being no further business, President Vaillencourt adjourned the meeting at 7:42pm.

Respectfully submitted,
Julie Schaible, Village Clerk
